

St. Luke's CEVA Primary School

Remote Learning Policy

Adopted: By the Curriculum Co: 2023

Review date: Autumn 2025

Aspiring to be just and kind

Walking humbly with God

Growing with every opportunity

At St. Luke's we aim to: Develop an active culture of justice and kindness, where everyone (regardless of background) is treated with dignity, respect and warmth. Embed a positive approach to behaviour management, which has restorative justice at its core and focuses on respect, forgiveness, trust and restoration.

Inspire the pupils to make ethical choices and become agents for change both within their own context and further afield.

Provide an environment where everyone can flourish and have a life enhancing encounter with the Christian faith and Jesus Christ.

Instil hearts of compassion which lead to the service of others both within our own context and further afield.

Provide an excellent, broad-based curriculum that inspires enthusiasm, energy and dedication as pupils fully engage with learning

Provide pupils with a variety of opportunities, including sporting, musical, artistic, technological and cultural activities that facilitate spiritual, moral, social and cultural and growth

Encourage pupils to grow in the in the 'fruits of the spirit' (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, humility, and self-control)

Develop a growth mindset, resilience and good mental health and well-being.

1. Aims

This remote learning policy for staff aims to:

- Ensure consistency in the approach to remote learning for pupils who aren't in school
- Set out expectations for all members of the school community with regards to remote learning
- Provide appropriate guidelines for data protection

Whole class remote learning

2. Roles and responsibilities

We have tried to include as much detail as possible when explaining the responsibilities below, if situations arise which are not covered by this guidance please raise with your line manager.

2.1 Teachers

When providing remote learning, teachers must be available between 8.30 – 15.30

If you are unable to work for any reason during this time, for example due to sickness or caring for a dependent, you should report this using the normal absence procedure. Please see the staff handbook for guidance on this.

When providing remote learning during a lockdown, teachers are responsible for:

- Setting work –
 - Provide work for your class and as needed and agreed other classes within the school.
 - Work that would be covered in a normal school day, 1x maths lesson, 1x handwriting lesson, 1 x GPS lesson, 1 x Reciprocal reading lesson, and 2 x topic lessons (1 to include writing to cover literacy outcomes) - these should reflect all of the foundation subjects in the National Curriculum.
 - Work will need to be set by or scheduled to be released by 08.50am on the day.
 - Providing a morning registration and information session at 9.00am on Google meets to take a register and outline work set for the day and answer any questions from pupils.
 - There should be at least two 'live' lessons per day, a maths lesson to follow on from the morning registration at 9.00am and a reciprocal reading lesson at a later point in the morning for KS1/2.
 - EYFS (nursery) will have 1 phonics activity and 1 maths activity uploaded to the web page per day along with selected story videos and extra activities to be completed.
 - EYFS (reception) will have 1 phonics activity, 1 reading activity, 1 writing activity and 1 maths activity uploaded to the web page per day, these may follow on from each other or use other resources such as YouTube videos for writing stimulus as well as extra activities and stories shared.
 - Work should be uploaded to Google classroom for the whole school apart from Nursery which will be on the school website/youtube for EYFS.
 - Coordinating with other staff, including those teaching in school, to ensure consistency across the year/subject and to make sure pupils with limited access to devices can still complete the work and sending paper copies if necessary.

- Ensuring the work set provides the support and challenge necessary to support all children in the class.
- Providing feedback on work:
 - Completed work from pupils will be submitted via Google classroom for KS2 and/or class email for KS1 / EYFS.
 - Feedback to pupils will come in the form of, written comments via google classroom, scores from multiple choice questions and verbal feedback via google meets.
 - Feedback on work should be in line with the schools feedback policy and in the case of live lessons on google meet should be 'live' and in lesson.
- Keeping in touch with pupils who aren't in school and their parents
 - Contact should be every day via the registration meeting at 9.00am and live lessons for maths and reading. If children are not present then parents should be rang to ascertain the reason why they are not – names of students not in the online start of day should be given to SLT/office staff to follow up.
 - Emails can also be used for this purpose but emails do not need be answered outside of regular working hours.
 - If there are any complaints or concerns shared by parents and pupils please follow the applicable school policy– for any safeguarding concerns see the section below.
 - Behavioural issues should be dealt with via the school behaviour policy, failure to complete work should be noted and reported to parents.
- Attending virtual meetings with staff, parents and pupils:
 - Dress should conform to the staff dress code outlined in the staff handbook.
 - Locations - please avoid areas with background noise and ensure their nothing inappropriate in the background if you are holding these at home. Staff should use the 'blur background feature on Google Meet to ensure privacy and for their safeguarding.
 - Sessions should be recorded using the 'record meeting' feature on Google meets.

There will be an agreed strategy for teachers working at home and working in school, with agreement of who will be covering what responsibilities above during this time to ensure a fair workload and work life/balance.

2.2 Teaching assistants

When assisting with remote learning, teaching assistants must be available between their normal working hours.

If they're unable to work for any reason during this time, for example due to sickness or caring for a dependent, they should report this using the normal absence procedure. Please see your staff handbook for guidance on this.

When assisting with remote learning, teaching assistants are responsible for:

- Supporting pupils who aren't in school with learning remotely:
