

Newham's SEND Local Offer

Our Local Offer website is a quick and easy way to find out about local services, support and activities for children and young people who have special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) including:

- Early help and family support
- Education and SEND
- Specialist health services
- Independent advice and guidance
- Preparing for adulthood
- Travel assistance

Newham Family Information Service

Our website provides information and sign posting to services that support families in Newham, including details of:

- Local childcare and early years provision
- Family and children health services
- Education
- Parenting support
- Help to get back into work, training or education
- Financial support
- Relationship and family support

